Army Fee Assistance (AFA) for Department of Army Civilians

Army Civilians who do not have access to on-post child care and are using a child care program that is a state Licensed and Nationally Accredited provider for their child care needs may apply for AFA by completing the application process as outlined below.

Army Fee Assistance Program guidelines state that if there is space available for a Sponsor's child/children at an Army CDC/SAC, then such space must be used for the care of his/her child/children. In the event that the Army CDC/SAC does not have space available, then the Sponsor may be eligible to apply for Off-Post Community Based Fee Assistance.

The GSA will validate the non-availability of garrison child care space in order to determine Families eligibility.

Upon receipt of a complete application package, the GSA Subsidy Administration Section will determine the Family's eligibility. If the Family is eligible for AFA, then they will receive an Army Fee Assistance Authorization Letter reflecting the dates and amount of AFA for which the Family is eligible.

If the Family is deemed ineligible, then they will be informed of the decision and the reason for the denial.
